She was fouled, according to those near by, by Driver Nitz in the stretch in the first heat. He was scared, and driving like a wild man, and shot directly across Judy, or she might have won that heat. Later he was fined by Starter Biggs for driving recklessly.

Judy will be campaigned through the circuit and the horsemen here all pronounce her the long looked-for second Lamp Girl, 209, the fastest mare ever raised in Virginia, and queen of Eastern Shore trotters.

The 2:27 pace was the best race of the meeting. Five horses were closely bunched in the first heat. On entering the stretch, when Investor shot from behind on the outside and nosed it out from Judge Linkwood in a thrilling finish. From the minute the call sounded for the indies was ninned on in the five-foot jump class and the horse show proper was over, not the greater part of the time the crowd with interest and on its very tiptoe with excitement. Clean performances were and the exhibitions in the harness classes were so close that the judges in every instance were obliged to get up and drive Both Mr. Courtland H. Smith and Mr Both Mr. Courtland H. Smith and Mr. Henry Grant, the harness judges, gave excellent examples of horsemanship, driving everything from a single to a road four at a running gallop. Mr. Smith believed Mr. Dunlop's "Watch Mo" and "See Mc Go" won the deserved applause of the grand stand.

Hissing Discontinued.

Hissing Discontinued.

There was but one instance of hissing, and that was called down very determinedly by the honest and decent sportsmen and sportswomen, and there was no recurrence of the disgusting mark of disapproval.

The awards were greeted for the most part with cheers, and the decisions of the judges were honest and satisfactory. Despite a cloudy morning a great crowd put in an appearance at the last day of the Horse Show. Heavy rains fell during the night, and there was some talk of postponement, but as the time for the first class approached the sun came out and made ideal weather for the show. The open park hack class was the first event of the day, and it proved the first event of the day, and it proved a gift for Mrs. Blair Johnson's "Robin Adair," with Mr. Garber's "Preference' second and Mrs. Allen Potts's "Radiant" and "Brilliant" third and fourth. This decision was repeated in the ladies' park hack class that followed.

The Lady Riders.

The ladies riding were Mrs. Blair Johnson, of Warrenton; Miss Mary Wright, of Karrisonburg; Miss Pole, of Hot Springs, and Mrs. Allen Potts.

In the class for ponies under saddle, little Miss Mary Hamilton, riding astride on a plebald, won first place, to the ntense delight of the grandstand. Mr. David Dunlop's two boys, John and David, also rode in the class, winning red and yellow rib 'ns, Master David Dunlop made a good performance on his bucking pony, and was greeted with cheers.

Heavy and middleweight hunters made cely a fair showing, on account of the heavy of sticky going. Charity, owned and ridder. Mr. Charles Hooff, but un a clean performance and went into first place. Mr. Hornes "High Jinks" captured 'he cardinal color.

Ladles' green hunters proved a flasso, and only one ribbon was awarded. Mr. David Dunlop's new purchase, "Black Mort," well ridden by Miss Swart, made the only excellent exhibition in the class and was awarded the blue.

In an added class for jumpers, Mr. P. V. Winfree's "Anno," by "Arnon," won out handly, Red went to Mr. Jarman's "Mabel." A popular award was the decision in the local harness class, that went to Mr. Hugh Bruxton's "Clara Mor." Mr. Fleet Galloway, who is riding and driving very successfully for Mr. Dunlop, is known amongst horsemen as the "Husky Hibernian," on account of the Irish hat-band and ties that he affects. Mr. Page is wearing a waistcoat that is a robbery to horse blankets, Mr. Arthur Warthen has purchased "Stolen Kisses" from Mr. Portner for $500.

In the class for ladles' harness horses owned by residents of Stauntón, the handsome silver cup offered by Mr. David Dunlop was captured by Mr. John F. Taylor's "Brutus," driven by Miss Ada Summerson. When the presentation took place in front of the grand stand a perfect ovation was given Miss Summerson, the band playing "Dixie" and the great crowd cheering madly. Only five thoroughbred hunters faced the jumps, the award going to Mr. Charles Hoff's "Commonwealth," a grand looking bay, son of Erie, that performed perfectly.

ing bay, son of Eric, that performed perfectly.

In the class for heavy harness horses, so close were the performances that the judges took more than half an hour in coming to a decision. When the blue was finally placed on the headstall of Mr. Dunlop's "Derby," the crowd applauded, the award being a popular one. Mr. Dunlop's "Derby," the crowd applauded, the award being a popular one. Mr. Dunlop drove his entry.

In the combination class Mr. Garber, the most popular horseman of this section, was awarded the blue, with his great looking horse, Preference, rod going to Mrs. Allen Potts's Brilliant.

Mr. Dunlop captured the pair class in heavy harness with "Watch Me" and "See Me Go," red going to Mr. Garber. Dr. Churchman entered a pair of light roadsters in this class, but, of course, failed to get in the ribbons.

The Corinthian class for hunters, ridden by members of a recognized hunt club, proved the reason for a protest being by members of a recognized hunt club, proved the reason for a protest being filed.

The riders all appeared in regulation hunt uniforms, pink hunting coats, with the colored collars of there respective hunts, and breeaches and top boats. The award went to Mr. Welford Rold's "Stee Belt, with second to Mr. Benner's "King Edward."

Popular Exhibit.

Road fours drove the crowd wild with delight. Mr. Sterrett entered four bays, before a green and yellow brake, and Mr. Dunlop made a bid with a mixed color four, before an olive and red road brake. On Mr. Dunlop's box seat besided, while following Mr. Sterrett's entry was an animal of the same variety. The Races.

Two races completed the programme of the day—a flat race at three-quarters of a mile in heats, and a hunter's race on the flat at two miles.

In the open race "Jim Lightfoot," owned by W. E. Keck, of Richmond, first threw his Jockey and then refused to start. He was left at the post. When Mr. C. H. Smith, the starter, sent the horses away, "Panella" beat out "Setauket" by a length in 1:14.

In the second heat: "Panella" repeated the performance and won as she liked in 1:13 1-2. The heat and race went to Panella, owned by H. G. Breckenridge, of Fincastic. Next Week's Bill Will Pleage.

Manager McKee is not prepared to announce his bill for the coming week, but he promises that the patrons of the Casino shall have no room for complaint. The attraction will be one which will appeal to all classes of play-goers, and the bill will run for the week.

Lafayette and his accomplices are doing much to amuse the people who flock to the Casino at every performance. Lafayette is in a class all to himself. His feats of legerdemain are equalled only by the performances of the travesty band, of which he is the leader, in which he initiates all the best known directors. The bill will romain for three more performances.
